Funeral services for Matilda Reibens were held Monday afternoon at the home of the deceased, Mrs. H. H. Smith, pastor of the local Methodist Episcopal church officiating. Funeral Director J. M. Shepard was in charge of the arrangements. The body will be taken this morning on the 9:30 train to Brooklyn, N. Y., for interment in the Evergreen cemetery.

Edward O'Brien, 21, of New London, was fined a dollar and costs in the local police court for participation in the fracas on North street Saturday night. O'Brien pleaded guilty to the charge but set upon by two young men whom he said he was not the aggressor and was thought hauled from Hartford. The young man was picked up at the corner of Valley and North streets by Lieutenant Allan McArthur after a complaint had been received by telephone of a free-for-all fight in this locality. O'Brien settled for $15.

Captain Mary Colburne of the Salvation Army was pleasantly surprised Saturday afternoon by a number of friends, the occasion being her birthday. She was presented with a handsome gold watch which a buffet lunch was served to those present. A collision between two automobiles bearing Massachusetts numbers occurred on Main street Sunday morning about 8:30 o'clock. Both were proceeding east at the time when the trolley stopped at Railroad street the driver of the forward car failed to signal the driver of the other machine and the crash occurred. The latter machine sustained a bent fender which the driver of the other car agreed to settle for. Miss Eva Chubb, of 145 Main street was surprised by about thirty of her friends Saturday night in honor of her

CUTICURA HEALS RED PIMPLES
Face Covered Scaled Over,
Itched and Burned.

"My face was covered with little red pimples. They scaled over, then dried up and were hard, and there would be four or five in groups, making them large. They burned and itched till I did not know what to do. I tried everything but they did not go. Then I was told to try Cuticura Soap and Ointment. After a week the pimples began to dry up and I only used two cakes of Cuticura Soap and not quite one box of Ointment when I was healed." (Signed) Miss Roseanna Allard, Waukegan, Ill., Fitchburg, Mass., June 7, 1919.

Cuticura For Toilet Uses
When used for every-day toilet purposes, Cuticura Soap not only cleanses, purifies and beautifies but it prevents many little skin troubles, if assisted by occasional use of Cuticura Ointment to soothe and heal the first signs of skin troubles. They are ideal for keeping the complexion fresh and clear, hands soft, scalp clean, hair lustrant.

The witnesses were Clement Hurlbut, Sr., father of the groom and Joseph Desjarlais, brother of the bride. A wedding breakfast followed the ceremony at the home of the bride's mother on South street, at which about thirty guests were present. Mr. and Mrs. Hurlbut left in the afternoon by automobile to Springfield and from there to Montreal, Canada, where they will spend their honeymoon. They will return in this city upon their return. The groom is employed at the Smith-Winchester (company) plan in South Windham where he has been in the employ of the Boston Valve Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred G. Nason and daughter, Marion, and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Eaton and son Sherman, left by automobile yesterday for a two-weeks stay at Lake Champlain, N. Y. The class of 1921 of the High school held its annual reunion Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Abbe, 124 South Windham street, having as a guest of honor, Miss Jessie M. Baldwin, a former member of the faculty at W. H. S. The evening was spent in informal social gathering and cake being served by the hostess. A message was received during the evening from Prof. and Mrs. A. E. Peterson who expressed regret at being unable to be present. The last Saturday evening in August was selected for the annual reunion. This class holds the distinction of being the only one at W. H. S. to hold reunions, the one Saturday evening being the thirteenth of its class since graduation. E. K. Manning of Waterbury, Conn., was the guest of honor at the reunion. Those present at the reunion were Miss Jessie M. Baldwin of New York City, Mrs. Ernest Manning of Waterbury, Conn., and Mrs. C. R. Norris of New London, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Card and Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Card of South Windham, J. R. Foster of Lebanon, Miss Florence Grant and Miss Elsie C. Marsh of Mansfield Center.

Mother Thersilla, who celebrated her golden jubilee as a nun on May 1st, who has been engaged in that noble work in this country for sixty-four years, forty of which she has been connected with the convent of St. Joseph's parish in this city, sailed Saturday from New York on the steamship Rotterdam for the Hamburg-American line on her way to the Mother House of the Sisters of Charity of Our Lady of Mercy at Thibault, Holland. Accompanying Mother Thersilla were Mother General Theresa and her secretary, Sister Ignatia, who came to this city to see the convent. At the same time have been the guests of the four convents of the order in this country. Sacred Heart of Tataville; Academy of the Holy Family, Baltic; and St. Mary and St. Joseph's in this city.

Mother Alphonsa of the Academy of the Holy Family at Baltic has been appointed the successor to Mother Thersilla in this city. She has been connected with the convent for more than eleven years. Mother Francis of England, who at one time was connected with St. Joseph's convent in this city and later with the convent at Baltic and Tataville has taken charge of the Baltic convent. She accompanied Mother General Thersilla to this country. Last month she was in England. Local people regret the departure of Mother Thersilla as she was well liked and had a genuine interest in the affairs of the convent. She had seen St. Joseph's school grow to a large and prosperous institution while it was largely through her efforts that St. Joseph's convent was transformed into a hospital. She held the position of superintendent of St. Joseph's hospital and director of the parochial school of that name and is succeeded in both of these positions by Mother Alphonsa.

Men who had money on the game, not the players, are responsible for the riotous and disgraceful ending of the baseball game between the American Legion team of Connecticut and the White Rocks, at White Rock, Sunday afternoon. The score was 2 to 1 at the fifth inning, with White Rock last at bat. With one man on base and one out, and third, the man on third, made a squeeze play, stealing in from third, starting while the pitcher was winding up. The ball was pitched the man at bat attempted to bunt. The catcher caught the ball, bumped into the batter, and the umpire declared the runner safe. The situation of the game was so winning strongly favorable to White Rock.

It was right here where the row started. Two Stonington men rushed into the field, and before the crowd realized that there was trouble brewing the umpire was knocked down by the two excited men from Stonington, whom so it is said, had bet money on Stonington to win. In quicker time than it can be written, the two men were on the ground, and the game was over. The umpire was not made by a couple of hot-headed boys, but by adults whose temper got the better of their judgment. The crowd, however, by the feeling that they were to lose the coin they wagered on the game. Westerly and the rest of Rhode Island is prepared to bestow full franchise on women qualified to vote, without the obligation of any of the present voting machinery. The legislature had already granted the women the right to vote for president, and also provided for the vote on the initiative, upon the certain of the passage of the constitutional amendment. All electors, men and women alike, will vote on the initiative on July 1, 1920, in order to vote at the November election. And that's all there is to it. The women registered in large numbers, expecting to vote only on the initiative for presidential purposes, not anticipating the pleasure of complete suffrage. No man or woman who failed to register under the initiative law, will be able to vote at the November election and July 1, 1920.

There has been legislation periodically concerning the prevention of pollution and the preservation of shellfish. There have also been numerous suits for injunction and for damages caused by the improper use of rivers and streams. While the courts have granted the relief sought by penalties and damages, it has been considered an unsatisfactory method of handling the growing evil.

She was adjudged guilty and committed to the state workhouse and house of correction for three years. ANNOUNCEMENTS
Strand.
The Strand has a banner show for today an omnibus headed by Charlotte Haug & Co., which is a classy thing. The show is a musical comedy, and the cast is also accompanied by the famous child singer. The Musical Johnsons are next seen in a musical comedy that brought the house down in a burst of applause. This is a wonderful musical act an omnibus heard by all.
